

Arnold Barry Gitlin

May 16, 1934 - September 14, 2013

Arnold was born on May 16, 1934 and passed away on September 14, 2013. Arnold was a resident of San Marcos then Anza, CA. He married our Mom, Mima (Bea) Taylor and lived in New Jersey for many years before moving to California. He was in the Airforce, he worked for years in the finance business and also the insurance business. He loved basketball! Watching it and playing it ! Mom passed away in 2007 of cancer and they are both sorely missed. Arnold and mom were fortunate to have always had their kids and grandkids around them - - which always filled them with joy.

“Four years go by too fast. We miss you Arn & Mom. Even though life goes on, there isn't a day when I don't miss my parents. I often feel like a 61 year old kid needing her parents to talk to. If I here a Neil Diamond song, I'm thinking of you Arn !!!!”

“" My Heartfelt Sympathy to Arn's loved ones. I'm at a lose of words, these two quotes says it all. There is no death. Only a change of worlds. While we are mourning the loss of our friend, others are rejoicing to meet him behind the veil."

“"Every tear we shed and pain we feel becomes a prayer that God hears and understands. You left so suddenly. I feel you are with Mom having morning coffee and doing the crossword puzzles again. I know you both loved that time together. I miss you Arn. Thank you for being my father for 44 years and taking care of Mom all the way to the end. It was a blessing that I got to chat with you a bit on the phone that same day that you left this earth. You called me "Florence Nightingale." Always full of jokes. I am going to shed tears but I will smile when I think of you and Mom together. love, your daughter"
