“I am just now seeing this For Fred , Fred you were such a strong and loving force in my life since I met you when you were a child. You probably knew how important you were to me I love you like a son I always will and you did know that . I was proud to have you call me Mom . Fred there will never be anyone like you , you were and your memories are some , most of the best in my life. You brought JOY AND LAUGHTER AND HONESTY EVERYWHERE YOU WENT. I am so grateful that you were a part of my life Fred. You know I have never known anyone as good , fun , funny, wonderful and HONEST as Fred. His Mom Marlene I know and his sister Saralee are such beautiful loving people and I am grateful to have them in my life as well. Fred I miss you ....and I cry sometimes ....but you still have the power to make me happy and make me laugh too. Your body may be gone ...BUT FRED? YOUR MAGIC LIVES ON , I WILL NEVER EVER FORGET YOU AND I WILL ALWAYS BE GRATEFUL I HAD YOU FOR THE SHORT TIME YOU WERE HERE .....love Karen your other Mom : )”

“Not a day passes by, good or bad, that you My Brother Freddy, are not somewhere in my thoughts. I never knew greater pain than losing you. You were my playmate, and my first best friend. I love you more than any big sister has any other little brother. Saralee Boyd Joachimstaler.”

“As my little brother, you were my best friend growing up. We were going to continue that sibling rivalry well into our old age. You left with out warning. I feel like my childhood memories will never be the same since I don't have you to laugh over them with you. I sometimes feel you around me. For that I am grateful. I miss you so much.”
