

Patrick Michael Moore

May 5, 1959 - July 30, 2016

Patrick Michael Moore was born on 5/5/1959 in San Rafael, CA and passed away on 7/30/2016. His birth mother was Joan Talamantez but he was adopted by his loving Mother and Father Elizabeth Anne Moore and Leslie Ray Moore. He grew up the oldest brother to Timothy and Kelly Moore. He began his life in San Rafael and then moved to Napa, CA with his family where he lived on a vineyard. His father Leslie passed away when Pat was only 6 years old and he became the man of the house. He and the rest of his family moved to Washington State and then to Oregon, but eventually settled in Santa Rosa, CA. Pat was an accomplished athlete and he excelled in soccer, football, baseball, track & field and basketball. He was also an avid runner, having completed 3 full marathons. He was an active member of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints his entire life and lived a life full of love and service. After lettering in soccer, basketball, track and field and graduating in 1977 from Montgomery High School in Santa Rosa, CA, Pat made the decision to serve a two-year church mission for the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints to the Munich, Germany Mission from 1978-1980. He learned to speak fluent German as he taught about the Gospel of Jesus Christ. He often spoke of his mission as two of the most formative years of his life. He fell in love with his high school sweetheart, Dyanna Miles and they would eventually be married in 1981 in the Oakland, CA temple. Pat continued to excel in soccer for Santa Rosa Junior College and then received a scholarship to play soccer for Brigham Young University in Utah. He and his wife had 7 children, 6 boys and 1 girl: Brandon Miles Moore, Kyle Miles Moore, Tanner Miles Moore, Logan Miles Moore, Jensen Miles Moore, Hunter Miles Moore, and Savannah Moore. Patrick graduated with a degree in Family Finance from BYU in 1986 at which point he had 4 children including a set of twins. He was an entrepreneur at heart with confidence in himself and his business ventures. He owned his own car striping business while he was in college, then built custom homes, and started a commercial water feature management company in San Diego, CA. He and Dyanna settled in San Marcos, CA where they bought a home with room to grow. Pat was very successful in his business venture with Waterworks Industries, but his real passion was for his family. Instead of expanding his business for recognition and praise from his peers, he decided to work 2-3 days a week and spend the rest of the time with his wife and children. He wanted a home that his kids enjoyed so he used his skill as a contractor to work alongside and teach his twins how to remodel a home. Pat taught all of his children to work hard through sports and through his Waterworks business. He was always teaching his children whenever an opportunity arose. Lessons on how to "finish" and how to "make your teammate look good" were favorites of his. "Don't make excuses, make adjustments" was another favorite quote taken from Pat. He understood that "effort breeds success" and he lived his life according to his word. In everything he did, Pat had a focused intensity until the goal was reached. He dedicated his time to coaching his children and he developed and presided over a youth basketball league (SMYBB) in his hometown for 15 years that allowed children to play basketball and learn life lessons. He also coached the junior varsity basketball team at San Marcos High School when his sons were students there. He was involved with every aspect of his children's lives and this attention produced a loving relationship with each of them. He was also a patriot in the fullest sense of the word. He loved his country and he defended the constitution with loving intensity. He understood that the Constitution was written by inspired men and the Lord had His hand in creating this free land and its government. He loved to share truth with any

that would listen about the Constitution, the Founding Fathers and how living the gospel would save our country. He taught his children to be good citizens and instilled an undying patriotism in each one of them. Once, when one of his sons asked him how he would feel if one of his children were drafted into the military, he said, "I would be so proud to have one of my sons serve this great nation and I would encourage whole hearted service to protect the country that we love." He took pride in being a free man and he lived to allow all others that same blessing of freedom. Pat was also very committed to his faith as he served in many leadership callings for the church, including Sunday School President, Young Men's President, Elder's Quorum President, serving on the High Council, Bishop, Stake Mission President, and 2nd Counselor in the Escondido Stake Presidency. Probably his favorite assignment was serving as an Ordinance Worker in the San Diego Temple. He was known throughout the region for his faith and his love of the Book of Mormon. He preached tirelessly for all to read the Book of Mormon and live by it's teachings. He had an intimate relationship with Christ and had a love for the Gospel of Jesus Christ. He patterned his life after the Savior and had the focus and faith to live a Christ-like life. Pat's greatest accomplishment and legacy in this life was his undying love for his wife Dyanna. He loved her without reservation and without condition. He lived for her and he sacrificed his needs for hers. He made certain that he showed his 6 sons how to treat women and left no doubt in their minds that he loved their mother. He showed his daughter the way she should expect to be treated through his demonstrations of love for his wife. He was a master teacher and he taught his children daily how to be Disciples of Christ. Pat wrote a family mission statement and motto for his family that sums up who he was and what was important to him: Our family Mission Statement: To follow the teachings of Jesus Christ,
To love and support each other.
To have patience and respect for each other.

To use our time and talents to bless the lives of others.

To use good manners, be good sports and build each other up.

To have each one take responsibility for making our house a clean, comfortable and heavenly place for all who enter it. It is our ultimate goal to live together forever in the presence of the Lord. Forever Moore Our Family
Motto: Teamwork

Teamwork is the ability to work together toward a common vision. It is the fuel that allows common people to attain uncommon results. Patrick,
You fought the good fight, finished the race, and kept the faith. We love you more than anything! God be with you till we meet again...

“ Pat was such a great man and an inspiration to so many, you could see that just by looking at his family and the way they live their lives, you will be missed so very much but our Heavenly Father must've needed you to further work on the other side of the veil, I know every person in the Moore family is so proud of the life that he lead, as well as all of those around him, Dyanna and Savannah were the two that I knew most and I want the two of them to know that they have been in my prayers and in my heart and I love them very much ?”

“In life there are chickens, and there are eagles. Pat, Dyanna, and family are all eagles of excellence. What a modest and humble man, husband, father, leader, Bishop, friend. My heart goes out to the entire family - but what a rejoicing to celebrate and honor his good life and example. And what comfort for Dyanna and children to know that he is their husband and father forever. A noble legacy and example does not begin to describe the man and his life. Definitely a difficult adjustment and loss, but he and family can rest assured of receiving all the best from a loving and eternal Heavenly Father. Children - you have big shoes to fill, but you have been coached and prepared well to do it! I can think of none better than Pat Moore, and his family. You all have many wonderful memories to treasure forever. All the best. With profound love and sympathy, Puerto Vallarta, Mexico Tracy Tippetts”

“Dyanna, our heart aches as we say goodbye to a dear friend and man that was always an example of love, friendship, and a man of honor and faith. Your family was such a strength to us when we were there in San Marcos. We will never forget you and your family and the love you shared with us. May the Lord give you strength and the faith to know that Pat will always be there by your side. You will never be alone. He will continue to be there for you and your family. We love you and are here if you ever need anything. Forever friends. Ken and Cori.”

“I just received the news Dyanna; my prayers are with you and your dear family. Pat is a mountain of a man in the kingdom of God. I count it as a huge blessing to have been able to spend precious time with you while in San Marcos. Pat is as solid as a rock; his testimony of the restored gospel, and his example as a father, husband, and church leader strengthened my testimony when we were new members of the church, 18 years ago. We love you Dyanna, and pray for your precious family.”

“I am so sorry for your loss!! I played soccer with Pat in high school. He truly was an incredible player and person. He was one of those guys that knew he was better than the average, but never put it in your face. I've often wondered through the years where he was and how life turned out for him. My prayers are with you all!! Rick Pendergrass”

“I am so sorry I cannot be there to hug you all. Without Pat's leadership as Bishop when I was growing up my whole family would have been lost. I will be forever grateful to have had him as a leader and a family friend. It is such a heavy blow when it happens unexpected. My prayers and tears are for your family today.”

“What an honor to have worked with President Moore. Pat you leave us touched by your love of the scriptures, your love of the Lord and our Savior Jesus Christ. But more than that you example of how to live what you believe is and will always be inspirational. You showed us in every aspect of your life the joy you had in your heart. It truly radiates the most in the love and example to your own family. We will miss so much until we meet again.”

“While we were all heartbroken to hear of Pat's passing, we are truly blessed as a family to know Pat and to know all of the Moore family. Pat's example to us and his great love, service and devotion to his faith, Dyanna and family is something we will always remember. We appreciate the great love and support we have received from Pat and his entire family as they made us feel welcome upon moving to San Marcos. Your family will continue to carry on the "Forever Moore" motto until we all meet again.”

“I just returned from the funeral of this good man. It was inspiring! It made me want to be better at reading from the treasured Book of Mormon daily, make adjustments and not excuses, make my teammates look good, and to love my God, spouse, family and country more. A great man who will be missed, but the tribute is in the powerfully faithful lives of his family!”

“Pat and his family have been such a big part of my life and my family's life for years. You and Dyanna and all your children mean so much to me, and I have felt your unconditional love many times. I have so appreciated your perspective as you helped me through some rough times as my Bishop for awhile, but I appreciate the things we have shared as friends too. I have always felt your kids were like surrogate children of mine and I love them as such. Thanks for being such a wonderful example of Christlike love and service. Years ago when you first challenged the ward when you were Bishop to read the Book of Mormon everyday and promised us that we would have a miracle in our lives, I experienced a profound miracle in mine. I admire you, I respect you and love you. I miss you but know you are doing a greater work and have a call to still serve your fellow man. Your kids are a living example of everything you taught them and your example to them. I am truly blessed to have you all in my life. I found a text on my phone from you. I texted you on your birthday to wish you happy birthday and I got a very kind response back and it's still on my phone and I will treasure it always! Love to all the Moore's!! xoxox”

“The services today were so sweet and wonderful. I always knew you had an amazing family but after listening to all the kids speak, I was really blown away at their individual faith and testimony that they learned at home. Each one sounded like a return missionary homecoming talk. One after the next after the next after the next. It's clear that the time and effort you both put into parenting produced amazingly strong and faithful children. I heard many people leaving today saying they wished they could start there lives over and be more like Pat. I say we all start today. Pat was able to set our oldest daughter apart for her mission in June of this year. His prayer was wonderful and sweet and faithful. We will miss his great smile and example but he lives on in you all and we know we will see him again. Thank you for sharing Pat with us as he served in the church and touched us all. My thoughts and prayers are will you all.”
